Chiesa di Santa Lucia

Category: Sacred Sites
business description:

The small 18th century church stands in a beautiful location, at the crossroads of several historic streets. Each year, on St. Lucy's Day (13 December), the church becomes the centre of devotional practices and charitable initiatives; the small square comes alive with stalls offering sweets and the traditional "LACABON", a honey and sugar stick.

phone: +39 0131 512.239
E-mail: beniculturali@diocesialessandria.it Admission fee: No

Links

https://www.comune.alessandria.it/schede-informative/settecento

Photos

